

Seminarankündigung des Berliner Zentrums für Hochschullehre:

Academic Teaching Excellence

Datum: 21.-25. September 2015, jeweils 9-17 Uhr

Ort: Berliner Zentrum für Hochschullehre, c/o TU Berlin, Fraunhoferstraße 33-36, 10587 Berlin

The ATE course is an intensive weeklong seminar for non-native English speaking lecturers who teach their subjects through the medium of English. It has been co-developed by the British Council and the University of Oxford's Department of Education. It is a foundation course in English as a medium of instruction (EMI) that addresses the complex linguistic challenge of teaching and learning in a second language.

ATE offers lecturers of all disciplines hands-on linguistic tools and teaching strategies in order to communicate their materials more effectively. It covers a variety of teaching contexts such as large lectures, interactive seminars, and one-to-one supervision situations. ATE is an intensive seminar that updates language skills and offers an innovative approach for day-to-day teaching practice.

Contents:

- ✓ Introduction to the principles of teaching through the medium of English
- ✓ Intensive speaking practice and review of advanced language skills
